

One on One Experts

Each Participant Receives One on One Sessions with Business Experts and Government Officials of Choice. Get the Information You Need! Time with each expert is limited, so please register early to secure your priority in session selection. Attendees may also sign-up for a session slot on the day of conference but space is not guaranteed.

One on One Government & Business Experts

Terri Denison

Small Business Administration District Director, Small Business Administration (SBA)

Expertise:

- Small business legislation
- Current and new opportunities through SBA
- 8(a) certification

Mildred Quinley

Director of Regional Office of Small Business Utilization, General Service Administrations (GSA)

Expertise:

- Small business government contracts,
- Set asides for small and disadvantaged businesses
- Current and new opportunities through GSA

Joann J. Hill

Chief of Business Development, Department of Commerce Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA)

Expertise:

- Securing financial capital
- Finding opportunities specifically geared to minority owned businesses

Allyson Brown

HHS Small Business Specialist, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)

Expertise:

- Small business opportunities within CDC
- Strategies for CDC contracting

Abraham Xiong

President, Government Contractors Association (GCA)

Expertise:

- Becoming a federal government contractor
- New legislation and strategies for current contractors
- Certifications that will advance your business

Tammie Bailey-Fults

President, National Association of Women Owned Small Businesses (NAWOSB)

Expertise:

- Networking with clients, potential partners & government officials
- Start-up businesses
- Women-owned businesses

Peggy Duncan

Founder, The Digital Breakthroughs Institute

Expertise:

- Free marketing strategies—boost presence and sales
- Using Social Media to your advantage
- Time management and productivity tips
- Office streamlining

Charles Hayes

Regional Small Business Program Manager, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Region IV

Expertise:

- Small business opportunities within EPA
- Strategies for EPA contracting